

Kickstart a Rewarding Career Helping Others

with Polus Center for Social & Economic Development, Inc.'s

Human Services

Professional Training

This FREE course is your stepping stone to a meaningful and diverse career, offering opportunities to grow and succeed. You'll gain essential skills like empathy, effective communication, and resilience—key traits that make a real difference in people's lives.

Learn how to prepare yourself to work in various positions in the Human Services Field including: Direct Support Professional, Addiction & Recovery Support, Case Management, and many more!

This six-week program offers:

- Interactive workshops
- Guest speakers from top organizations
- Real-world insights into the human services field
- Development of essential career tools, including resume & cover letter writing
- Personalized career coaching

Eligible Candidates Must:

- Be a Massachusetts resident
- Be unemployed or underemployed
- Have a high school diploma or equivalent
- Be able to pass a standard background check
- Have reliable internet access & Computer
- Have reliable access to transportation
- 18 years or older

*Be ready to work upon graduation***

Classes will be held

Tuesday through Friday 9 AM - 1 PM on Zoom
SESSION START DATE: March 4th, 2025

Questions? Contact:

Robbie Richards, Program Coordinator
Phone: 978-894-5627
Email: rrichards@poluscenter.org

Visit to LEARN MORE
And APPLY TODAY
<https://www.poluscenter.org/polus-us/human-services-training>